My Dearest Dom and Prince,

This letter is for both of you, our beautiful boys, who have filled our hearts with such deep love and joy.

Dommy Bear, our hearts are still broken from saying goodbye to you, but we hold on to the memories of the two wonderful years we had with you. You came to us as a gift, and we will forever be grateful for the chance to love you. You were such a sweet and gentle soul, always content to simply be by our side, your green ball in tow and your silly spirit lighting up the room. Your love for winter, your habit of sticking your head in the snow for a little snack, and your back wiggles—these are the little moments we will cherish forever. Your sense of adventure, your love for long walks, your car rides, your cuddles—everything about you made us smile. Dom, we wish we had more time with you, but we know you're now off on new adventures, chasing the things you loved with the same joyful spirit you had in this life. We will always carry your memory in our hearts, and we know one day we'll see you again.

Prince, our beautiful boy, you've been our rock through it all. You've stepped in and comforted us in the most tender ways, licking away our tears and bringing joy when our hearts felt heavy. You're our light, our cuddly little love bug, always ready to give kisses and curl up close at bedtime. You've carried us through the pain of losing Dom, showing us the strength of your love. The walks, the car rides, your playful squeaky toy—everything about you reminds us of the joy of life and the unconditional love we are lucky to share with you. We can't imagine life without you, Princey, and we thank the stars every day for you. You're our sensitive, affectionate boy who knows just when to be there for us.

We know that Dom's spirit lives on in the love we share with you, Prince. You've carried us through with your gentle, sweet nature, and we are so incredibly thankful for the love and light you bring into our world. The journey we've had with you both, from the moment we first met Dom to the precious moments we share now with you, Prince, is one we will never take for granted.

Dom's memory is carried in every step we take, and Prince, your love is what holds us together. We will always give you the incredible life you deserve, just as we gave Dom all the love we had, and we will forever be grateful for the joy and peace you both bring into our hearts.

With all our love,

Mommy and Daddy xoxox